

1000 hr economic blockade brews trouble in lower Assam

Comments 0

editor 29 July 2008 16044 views

An uneasy situation is prevailing in Dhubri district for a string of untoward incidents that took place when All Koch Rajbanshi Students Union was running its 1000 hour economic blockade in the lower Assam district. The situation turned grave on Monday when a 609 canter was torched at Kumarganj on the Dhubri- Kachugaon Road under Gookganj police station of Dhubri district on its way to Gossaigaon by a few suspected Akrsu activists.

According to information, all the passengers were asked to get down before the miscreants torched the bus by splashing kerosene oil. Passengers inside the bus ran away. Police team rushed to the spot but the vehicle was completely gutted by the then. Police and security forces have been deployed in the area the death of a Akrsu activist at khogarpur in Bongaigaon district by a speeding Tata-victa on Saturday.

Meanwhile, a few trucks carrying essential goods are plying under the heavy police escorts on the NH 31 and 31 (C) while all kinds of private passenger buses and cars are off the roads.

The blockade has entered tenth day on Tuesday. called by Akrsu -Biswajit Roy faction. Akrsu also called 24-hour Kamtapur bandh in protest against the death of Akrsu Kakoijana anchalik publicity secretary, Bireswar Roy.

editor

Please send your comments to editor@assamtimes.org

BY EDITOR

Witch hunting rerun in Chirang!

Police remand for Nagaon culprit

Candle lighting rally

ULFA condoles demise of SS Khaplang

Beef puts M'laya BJP in the red

ON THIS DAY

Congress Lodges FIR Against Assam BJP President for Controversial Remarks

Ayushman Bharat launches in Hojai District

Kalpana Lajmi passes away

Witch hunting rerun in Chirang!

Durga puja festivity grips Namrup
