The 23rd bi-ennial conference of All Chutia Youth Sanmilan concluded today at Jamuguri in Golaghat district. At the open session held on the concluding day eminent personalities of the state graced the occasion. Among those who attended the meet were Haren Chutia, Secretary All Chuita Jati Sanmilan, Sarat Saikia MLA from Mahmora constituency and Parliamentary Secretary Education department, Amiya Bora former chairperson of APSC, Jatin Bora Vice-president of All Assam Students Union. Speaking on the occasion Bitupan Saikia, the newly elected president of All Chutia Youth Sanmilan, said that the Chutias have been demanding the SC status for a long time but the government has been ignoring our pleas. He further said that, as a consolation the government has set up a development council but the people are not satisfied with it as the council had failed to live up to the expectations of Chutia people and we shall not stop our movement unless the much demanded SC status has been given to us. A new executive committee of All Chutia Youth Sanmilan has also been formed having Bitopan Saikia as President and Nripen Saikia as Secretary.
