

24 hours Assam Bandh affects normal life at Haflong

Comments 0

editor 25 May 2012 11972 views

The 24 hours Assam Bandh starting from 5 am of 25th to 5 am 26th May, Jointly called by All Assam Tribal Sangha, DSU, KSA, ARSU, TMPK, AATYL, AASKSU, ATSU, MMK, GSU, SKNC, Deuri Students' Union and other tribal organisation of Assam, in protest against large scale deprivation of SC & St candidate in teacher appointment in the name of TET qualification paralysed normal life at Haflong, Umrangso, Maibang, Mahur, Harangajao etc.

All the government and semi- government offices including banks, market remain closed. Government and private Schools also remain closed. ASTC and Private bus services were suspended. No vehicle, except of security personals' were seen during the bandh. No untoward incident reported so far. The DSU President, Sri Kebaron Naiding, however, disclosed that if the government did not pay any attention to their demands they would resorted to stronger agitation in near future. They also said on May 31 there would be a convention of all the tribal organization to chalk out their future strategy.

editor

Please send your comments to editor@assamtimes.org

BY EDITOR

Witch hunting rerun in Chirang!

Police remand for Nagaon culprit

Candle lighting rally

ULFA condoles demise of SS Khaplang

Beef puts M'laya BJP in the red

ON THIS DAY

Motor Vehicles (Amendment) Act notified

Sundaram to investigate SP EAC scuffle

Gold Rush for press club screening

Restore Chakma-Hajong rights: Civil body to government

Lafikul family unhappy with CBI for delay in probe
