Jeypore Rainforest, a sprawling forest landscape of Upper Assam, interspersed with the meandering Dihing River, is a hotbed of Bio-diversity that can rival the best tropical rainforest sites in South/South Asia. The second Jeypore Rainforest Festival, being organized jointly by Dibrugarh district administration and Assam Tourism Development Co-operation with three days programme began from February 17-19. First day the programme was started with colourful ethnic cultural procession. Hon'ble DoNER Minister Pawan Singh Ghatowar gracing the occasion as the Chief Guest formally inaugurated the festival. The three-day-long event featured performance & songs, dance, ethnic, dress show, volleyball, quiz, seminar on eco-tourism, etc.
