

3rd Indigenous Music Festival at Diphu

Comments 0

editor 3 October 2011 10728 views

On the auspicious day of 'International Day of Non- Violence', various North East bands came together to appeal for Harmony in the North East Region at KASSA Indoor Stadium, Diphu, Assam on 2nd October 2011. The 3rd Indigenous Music Festival was organized by Abiogenesis Society, Dimapur in collaboration with North East Zone Cultural Centre, Ministry Of Culture, Government of India. The previous 1st and 2nd Indigenous Music Festival was held at Dimapur in 2007 and 2009 respectively. The bands that performed in this years festival are Ragga Muffin (Diphu), Rokrar (Diphu), Maestro (Halflong), Jambili (Diphu) and Incipit (Nagaland) with Premson Bey taking the mic as host for the show.

Through this festival, Abiogenesis Society intends to promote indigenous and original music of the North East and at the same time create a platform and showcase upcoming and existing bands and where participating musicians and bands from the region can interact and get to know each other. Indigenous Music Festival will be an annual event so interested musicians and bands who are into original music can look out for the announcement next year through media.

editor

Please send your comments to editor@assamtimes.org

BY EDITOR

Witch hunting rerun in Chirang!

Police remand for Nagaon culprit

Candle lighting rally

ULFA condoles demise of SS Khaplang

Beef puts M'laya BJP in the red

ON THIS DAY

When Justice-for-Zubeen campaign gains momentum

Assam Women Clinch National Tchoukball Championship

০০০০ ০০ ০০০০০০ ০০০০ ০০০০ ০০০০০০ (3)

Buffy to distribute sanitary napkins in Nagaland.

Heart awareness rally in the city
