NAGAON: Four persons died and at least 25 others sustained injury when the passenger bus in which they were travelling collided its head on a truck in Nagaon on Thursday.

The accident took place early in the morning on the National Highway No 37 at Mensing area near Kaliabor where three passengers died on the spot.

Another died as he along with injured others were rushed to a local hospital in Jakhalabandha.

Local residents here have blamed the dense fogs that disrupted the visibility when the loaded truck and the mini bus were coming from opposite directions.
