

4 rebels killed in two mid-night encounters in lower Assam

Comments 0

editor 13 August 2008 10825 views

Altogether four rebels were killed in two encounters in lower Assam on late Tuesday night.

According to information, two hardcore ULFA rebels were killed at encounter at Sanyash pahar area in Bongaigaon district on late Tuesday night. Acting on some specific inputs, Army's 21st Jatt Regiment jawans and Bongaigaon police launched a joint operation in the area and found out the hiding rebels. Both the rebels were killed on the spot. The bodies have yet to be identified. Police later recovered two grenades and a pistol from the spot.

In yet another incident, two unidentified terrorists were killed during an operation by Army's Red Horn Division at Sotemari area in Nalbari district on Tuesday night. A 7.62 point mm pistol, one round of live ammunition, a hand grenade and some improvised explosive devices weighing around five KG have been recovered from the spot.

editor

Please send your comments to editor@assamtimes.org

BY EDITOR

Witch hunting rerun in Chirang!

Police remand for Nagaon culprit

Candle lighting rally

ULFA condoles demise of SS Khaplang

Beef puts M'laya BJP in the red

ON THIS DAY

When Justice-for-Zubeen campaign gains momentum

Assam Women Clinch National Tchoukball Championship

গোলাপী গাৰ গাৰীয়াৰ গাৰীয়া গাৰীয়া গাৰীয়া (3)

Buffy to distribute sanitary napkins in Nagaland.

Heart awareness rally in the city

