Five people including three policemen have been left injured as the Black Widow militants by accident attacked them in between Langtin and Hatisali on Friday afternoon. According to information, the militants attacked the police vehicles while it was on the way to Maibong from Lumding at around 4-45 in the evening. The driver and a staff of the vehicle have also been left in the incident. Meanwhile, Black Widow publicity secretary Faifrang Dimasa made it clear that the ambush was mistakenly carried out saying they targeted DHD chief Dilip Nunisa.
