

64th Independence Day observed at Barpeta

Comments 0

Juthika Das 16 August 2011 9421 views

Along with the rest of the country in Assam at Barpeta district also the 64th Independence Day was observed with tight security with various programmes. The National Flag, on the occasion of this remarkable day was unfurled by the agriculture minister of Assam Nilmoni Sen Dekha. Addressing on the occasion Nilmoni Sen Dekha remembered the departed souls of the freedom fighters who had sacrificed their lives for the sake of the nation. In his address he explained in detail about the various schemes that were taken by the government. In this Independence Day eve the freedom fighters of the district and the sports persons and students of the districts who had brought laurels to the field of sports. On the other hand, the cultural programme which was performed by the artist on this occasion also very attractive one. On this I- Day eve all the Barpetians were present. Barpeta town business Association and Barpeta Road business Association distributed fruits and sweets at Fakharuddin Ali Ahmed Medical College and Hospital. The programme completed peacefully here at Barpeta.

Juthika Das

Journalist from Barpeta.

BY JUTHIKA DAS

Assamese prof to speak on Slow Loris at Intl conference

Save rhino campaign on bicycle

50 taken ill for vaccination

Freedom fighter Radhakanta Talukdar no more

Manas national Park opened for the tourists

ON THIS DAY

Goodbye, prince of melody.....

Healthcare for All: Shushrusha Setu Mega Health Camp in Nazira Constituency

BPF heading for landslide victory in BTAD

10 days training for paramilitary force

WWF India launches digital environment course for students and teachers
