Demanding to take back TET from the District of Dima Hasao, to hold fresh process of eligibility test by the Dima Hasao Autonomous Council and to protect their rights and bread and butter, Dimasa Students Union along with Dimasa Woman Society etc. have called for Dima Hasao Bandh from 5 am of Wednesday (7.3.12) to 5 pm of Tuesday (20.3.12).

It is said this bandh has been called protesting the holding of TET interview in the district violating the rights of the sixth schedule to the constitution of India and overruling the autonomy of the Dima Hasao Autonomous Council by the State Government of Assam.

The bandh is however exempted the services like medical, examination, water supply, electricity supply and media.
