The All Adivasi Students' Association of Assam is likely to hit the streets again with indefinite road blockade if the government fails to ensure a revised daily wage amount

Talking to Assam Times, AASAA officials say that they would block the transportation of tea products across the state if the government downplays the demand.

They said the wage advisory board in its meeting on May 15 and 16 suggested a slew of measures to fix the revised wages for the workers. But of no avail.
