The Raha unit of the All Assam Students' Union (AASU) on Wednesday staged a demonstration in front of the Raha ASEB office in protest against the frequent load shedding at Raha Town and its neighbouring areas at around 10 a.m.

Criticizing the irregular supply of power by ASEB, at Raha and its neighbouring areas Mridul Hazarika said, " The residents of Raha are perennially suffering a lot due to erratic power supply by ASEB. There is no fixed time for load shedding here as a result of which Students, business community, industrial units, among others are suffering a lot due to the erratic power supply."

Later, Lakshi Das Barua, Circle Officer, Raha, Bhupen Bora, SDO, ASEB, Raha office came to a discussion and assured the AASU activists to solve their problems upon which the activists opened the locked office for its employees.
