The recent publication of certain news about the financial irregularity at the Assam Agricultural University (AAU), Jorhat and charges of corruption levelled against some officials of the university, particularly against the VC Dr KM Bujarbaruah, has received sharp reaction from the teaching staffs, non-teaching staffs and the students community of the College of Fisheries, Raha.

Opposing to these news reports, the Teaching staff and the students of College of Fisheries, Raha, on Friday staged a sit-in demonstration wearing black badges within the college premises here at Raha.
