The movement group also anticipates a Permanent solution of the long pending Bodo Issue within short period for the interest of sustainable peace and all round development in the region.

The joint movement group demands for adopting a clear-cut and pragmatic policy decision from the Government of India and expects a positive outcome from the ensuing talk to be held on the 25th April 2017 because it is also an election commitment of the present government. This was informed in a press statement issued jointly by ABSU, PJACMB and NDFB (P).
