

ABSU observes anti terrorism day

Comments 0

Ranjan K Baruah 30 July 2016 9592 views

All Bodo Students Union (ABSU) has observed 20th anti terrorism day on 30th July at Jwhwlao Swambla Fwthar in Goibari near Basugaon in Chirang district. The programme started with flag hoisting and floral tributes paid to Late Swambla Basumataray, former president of ABSU who was killed by terrorists on 30th July, 1996. Pigeon was released as a mark of peace and a memorial lecture was held on the occasion which was chaired by Pramod Boro. Pramod Boro, President of ABSU said that “terrorism is an inhuman act by human being, stop it to protect humanity around the world”. “India is land of Mahatma Gandhi and it is for non violence, terrorism or any sort of violence is to be condemned in the country”. “ABSU has been believing and practising non violence since inception and we condemn all sort of terrorism as it’s against humanity , he added. He urged the government that there must be a space for dialogues and negotiations to stop armed conflicts in the region as counter insurgency and operations or killings shall not bring sustainable solutions . “There are different forms of terrorism and it must be looked critically to bring solutions as it has spread around the world in different ways , people must be educated to combat terrorism”, said U G Brahma , former MP of Rajya Sabha. Replying to the media persons when asked whether she got justice or not, Mrs Bhanumati Basumatary wife of Late Swmbala Basumatary said that she is not asking for justice but she wants sustainable peace in the society with solution to present movement of ABSU. There was a signature campaign to raise peoples voice against terrorism which signed by different individuals and representatives of various organizations.

Ranjan K Baruah

Citizen Journalist and activist.

BY RANJAN K BARUAH

Lakes: The lifeblood of our planet

Humanitarian Workers Stand Up for People in Need

Different Contexts, Common Aspirations

MSME Day: Innovation key to building resilient businesses

International Day Against Drug Abuse: Innovation key to combating illicit drugs

ON THIS DAY

AJYCP protests against Lower Subansiri hydropower project

School reopening in the state

UPPL ready for election

Physical assault on magistrate in Kokrajhar

Peace Conversations in Assam

RELATED

Statue of first Bodo engineer Haliram Brahma installed at Bodoland University

Illegal earth excavation alleged along Namti River in Nazira

Cattle theft in Geleki: One arrested, two escape

Shyntor Festival to return to Shyntorbulia in December

Third citizens' convention in Nazira calls for scientific probe into July 19 floods
