There is excellent news for all the Northeast student - Delhi University has set up a unique cell with student counselors for helping the student of Northeast. The cell is being carrying out on both the campuses i.e. DU North Campus and South Campus since 4th June 2012. Moreover, the cell said that there would be further reinforcement, when the admission process will held from June 26 with the declaration of the first cutoff.

The North Campus dean of students' welfare office said that 11 counselors have been present for leading the students in filling up the forms and have fielded inquiry on phone. There are a preponderance of the counselors are on hand at the Arts Faculty, North Campus as well as at South Campus.
