The Asom Gana Parishad and BJP have deferred the seat sharing deal on Wednesday due to the absence of Assam BJP leader Mison Ranjan Das. Das failed to make as his brother died in the morning.

According to information, the meeting was scheduled to clear the deal as the deadlock over Guwahati, and Mangaldoi has yet to end. Both the parties earlier have held several rounds of talks but fail to end the impasse. The meeting would take place on Thursday to announce the list.
