After months of political confabulation, the opposition AGP formally has decided to snap its poll pact with BJP. The decision was cleared on Monday as the party was holding its general council meet in Guwahati. Presided over by Chandramohan Patowary, the meeting discussed some major poll issues to approach the people thereof. Former opposition leader and minister Brindaban Goswami was conspicuous by his absence from this general body meeting. The regional party further discussed the ganasangyug yatra and tremendous response thereof in upper Assam.
