Guwahati: AGP General House Meeting today has taken some concrete decisions. The General House Meeting has decided to hold the AGP Executive Committee Meeting on 30th and 31st August. It has decided to hold all District Conferences within 25th August and the Anchalik Conferences before 20th August.

The General House Meeting has also decided that it would be in the interests of the Organisation to unite all founder leaders under the banner of AGP and reunite the party.

Brindavan Goswami's leadership is also under question and he has indicated that he may resign from his position before the coming assembly elections.
