Amid simmering crisis, the Asom Gana Parishad held its executive committee meeting on Friday in Guwahati to discuss the Lok Sabha poll.

Presided over by Prafulla Kumar Mahanta, the failed to arrive at a consensus on the upcoming general election. Former president Chandra Mohan Patowary, who is set to join BJP, was conspicuous by his absence.

Several other disappointed top leaders came out of the meeting. The regional party is scheduled to prepare the list of candidates on Saturday.
