Congress leader Dr Pervez Ahmed is likely to join AIUDF to be fielded in the upcoming Lok Sabha polls.

This was what AIUDF sources told Assam Times on Tuesday. AIUDF is actively considering ticket to him in Koliabor in the upcoming Lok Sabha polls.

The son of former President Fakaruddin Ali Ahmed met AIUDF president Badaruddin Ajmal at the party headquarters in Guwahati on Tuesday.

He alleged that despite assurance of ticket to contest the polls on several occasions, the chief minister finally failed to keep his promise.

He further said that Gaurav Gogoi has no skill in politics and that he got ticket only because of the chief minister's son.
