AIUDF president Badaruddin Ajmal threatens legal action NewsX a day after the private satellite channel broke the story of his link with the Jihadi elements in Bangladesh.

Addressing a crowded press conference at the party headquarters in Guwahati on Wednesday, Ajmal said that the story was total false and fabricated and that it was a conspiracy to malign him and his party in view of the growing popularity a year ahead of the assembly polls.

Ajmal said that the IB report in question was totally false and flawed.
