After K.N.L.F. killed three Bihari People in Borlalungaon of Sikanjuri under Samaguri at 5.30 A.M. this morning, Akhil Assam Bhojpuri Chatra Parishad took out a protest rally to protest against the killings. Speaking to the media the leader of the said organisation Narendra Chouhan said Parishad appeals for President's rule in Assam as Gogoi government has failed in ruling the state and the security to the people of Assam is at Stake. Thereafter they met the Deputy Commissioner of Nagaon Dr. J. Balaji who assured them that they will put there effort for complete security during Chat Puja and a proper compensation for each of the member killed in the incident. He also gave 15 thousand rupees for the funeral. A CRPF camp is also set up in the gaon to make sure no more such accident take place.

Forest Minister Rockybul Hussain and Former Chief Minister Prafulla Kumar Mahanta also visited the spot and condoled the family member of the deceased.
