KMSS president Akhil Gogoi blamed it all on the Government for the injury of Pramode Boro who attempted self immolation in Dispur opposing the land patta distribution on Monday.

Talking to reporters at GMCH premises after visiting Bodo, Gogoi said that the government should have listen to KMSS. “We expected that the government would not allow this to happen. But they did finally,” he said.

He further urged his fellows not to take resort to self immolation adding that the entire episode is a conspiracy by chief minister Tarun Gogoi, who thinks only of the Lok Sabha polls and not the common people.
