RTI activist Akhil Gogoi again takes on health minister Dr Himanta Biswa Sarma citing his huge assets of doubtful sources. Addressing a press conference in Guwahati on Sunday, Gogoi said the source fund of Newslive channel which is owned by his wife Riniki Bhuyan Sarma are doubtful. He said the entire fund to the tune of several crores being invested in this news channel belong to Sarma. He said Sarma shows some stakeholders and their amounts of stake. But several crores have been invested without showing anything. He further said NEDFi has issued loans to Riniki Bhuyan Sarma without properly scanning her particulars.
