KMSS leader Akhil Gogoi sustained serious injury when a group of miscreants sprang upon him in Nalbari on Friday. The attack, allegedly by a group of youth Congress men, took place when the RTI activist visited the flood-hit people in Punni village in Dharmapur. He was attacked with sticks and other sharp weapons. Later police rushed to the spot but by then the miscreants vanished from the spot. A case has been registered on the basis of the complaint of the Team Anna member. Investigation is going on.
