Rampant corruption in the recent civil service examinations prominently figured in the discussion between Akhil Gogoi and governor PB Acharya on Saturday.

The KMSS leader strongly demanded immediate removal of APSC chairman Rakesh Paul for his alleged corruption in the examinations where brilliant candidates were deprived and those who bribed him got selection in the ACS, APS and allied services.

During the discussion at the Raj Bhawan led by Gogoi, the five member team of the KMSS handed over to the governor some evidence to substantiate the allegations of corruption that spoiled the entire organization.

Acharya who invited Gogoi over a cup of tea assured Gogoi of steps to look into the allegations.

KOKRAJHAR, September 22, 2026 — The All Bodo Students' Union (ABSU) on Tuesday burnt copies of a book titled Hamkoshar Parishista during protests held at several locations across Assam, including Gauhati University, objecting to what it described as the use of the Assamese script to represent the Bodo language.

Hamkoshar Parishista is a multilingual appendix containing learning resources for indigenous languages of Assam, including Bodo, Rabha, Mising and Karbi.

During the protests, ABSU members alleged that Bodo has been represented in the publication using the Assamese script instead of Devanagari, the script used for Bodo.

The organisation asserted that Bodo is recognised under the Eighth Schedule of the Constitution of India and is an Associate Official Language of Assam. ABSU demanded that Bodo be represented in its recognised script in educational and learning resources.

ABSU president Khwrmmdao Wary said the use of the Assamese script to represent Bodo in the publication was disrespectful to the Bodo language and literature.

He said Bodo is an Associate Official Language of Assam and a language recognised under the Eighth Schedule of the Constitution.

Wary demanded the immediate withdrawal of the publication in its present form and called for the use of the Devanagari script for Bodo in the book.
