KMSS leader Akhil Gogoi on Saturday targeted a satellite TV news channel alleging that a reporter of the channel was actively involved on the Guwahati molestation incident. Addressing a press conference in Guwahati on Saturday, the RTI activist said that the entire incident was planned by a group of miscreants involving NewsLive reporter Gauravjyoti Neog. Gogoi produced some video clippings to justify his claim he made on Friday. According to him, Neog planned the incident for footage and he was also part of the mob that assaulted the girl. He further slammed the channel's management, editor in chief and managing for trying to shield the reporter and demanded that the channel should be blacklisted and a thorough probe be conducted into the incident and the channel's role. Before that, Gogoi submitted the video clippings before the director general of police.
