BJP president Amit Shah is on a stock taking visit to Guwahati on July 14 a few months ahead of the assembly polls.

During his visit to the north eastern region, Shah is expected to finetune the strategies for the assembly polls early next year. Before that he is scheduled to address the Maha Sampark Abhiyan in Guwahati.

Party sources told Assam Times that Ram Madhab and Dharmendra Pradhan have been monitoring the party's poll preparedness in the state.

The senior leaders are believed to have been finding it difficult to find out formidable poll candidates.

Further the party leaders are not happy with the poll preparedness in the grassroot level.
