Guwahati: The policemen probing the police recruitment scam has arrested a businessman on Tuesday.

He is none other than Akhshay Chand who got the sub contract to conduct the recruitment test on September 20.

The Bongaigaon based trader was held immediately after a private hospital in Guwahati released him 10 days after he was rushed to it for treatment.

Before undergoing treatment in the hospital, he was admitted in another private hospital in the city.

Later, CID produced him before CJM which remanded him to judicial custody.

The court rejected CID's prayer for Chand in their custody.

But the court rejected it citing health ground.
