Good news for Assam. Delhiites would be able to shop some of the best traditional handicrafts from Assam.

These would be available at a 'mela' to be organised by SSB in the national capital on Sunday. Wives of Sashastra Seema Bal, would bring traditional Assamese handicrafts, food items and dresses to the three-day 'mela' at the CRPF ground in front of CGO complex.

The SSB has organised the 'mela' under the aegis of its wives welfare association and the proceeds of the sale would go for the welfare of the troops.
