One after another tragic incidents seem to have shocked Guwahati \(/taxonomy/term/295\) during the last 24 hours after the city was caught in massive water logging.

Yet another person was electrocuted to death \(/taxonomy/term/880\) in the city giving rise to the toll in the flood \(/taxonomy/term/1231\)-hit city.

The incident took place at Narengi near the LG tower where Mustak King \(/taxonomy/term/1235\) Khan, a daily wage earner from Bihar died on the spot. The incident took place 24 hours after 5 persons died of electrocution in the city.

The city was caught in the massive waterlogging, electrocution and landslides that claimed 11 lives on during the last 24 hours.

Waters in Lachit Nagar, Bhangagarh, Rupnagar areas are receding rapidly. But Anil Nagar, Chandmari, Nabin Nagar are still reeling under rain (/taxonomy/term/891) waters.

The situation could turn worse if rain (/taxonomy/term/891) revisits with the next 24 hours. There is report of marginal let –up in the situation in Dispur

(/taxonomy/term/462) where rainwaters wreaked havoc at the MLA (/taxonomy/term/616) hostel.
