Assam Governor Lt general (Retd) Ajoy Kumar Singh says the anti insurgency operation in Assam has been by and large successful. Addressing the Assam legislative Assembly on its opening day of the Budget session in the morning, the Governor says his Government has been doing a lot for overall development of the state. He further says the government has been implementing lots of schemes for the welfare of the people. A visibly upset Opposition parties have stood up alleging that the Government has been failing on all fronts. This has created an uproar in the House. This has forced the Governor to cut short his address.
