ULFA's pro talk team on Friday sought Centr's help to bring back its general secretary Anup Chetia, who is in a Dhaka jail. They also sought the Centre's nod to travel to Bangladesh to meet the jailed colleague. They raised the demand when the ULFA delegation led by Arabinda Rajkhowa held fifth round of peace talks with Union home secretary RK Singh in Delhi on Friday. Apart from peace, the meeting discussed flood, immigration and cultural identity issues in presence of peace interlocutor PC Halдар
