A heap of unidentified materials is creating no less sensation and anxiety in Golaghat district on Friday. Local residents in Mohuramukh area are thronging in thousands to get a glimpse of a heap of stone like materials which fell from the sky in the wee hours.

According to the local residents they came to hear a huge sound in the wee hours and then they came to see the unidentified materials at a knee deep crater.

Many people have been examining the materials. But nobody has come to a conclusion.
