The Asom Nagarik Samaj has condemned the JNU mob attack happened on Sunday night which sent shock waves across the country.

Demanding independent inquiry into the horrific incident the outfit said in a press release that what happened in JNU last night is unbelievable and shocking! Even during the emergency such things didn't occur. It further said,

“This attack by ABVP goons on the students and teachers inside the JNU campus will remain a black day in the annals of higher education in India. For sometime JNUSU was agitating against the steep fee hike which stalled the normal activities in the university. To end the stalemate the HRD Ministry and the UGC promised additional funds for the JNU.

Despite this the JNU authorities have not rolled back the fee hike which compelled the JNUSU to continue with the strike.” “ It has been reported that to break the strike the JNU VC and the ABVP jointly planned this horrifying attack on the students and teachers.

As an alumnus of JNU, I am extremely disturbed over the violence in the campus. Ideological difference should not lead to physical confrontation. I condemn the goons who perpetrated it. They must be brought to book. How could the attackers enter the campus under the nose of security guards ?

The police either joined them or indirectly supported them by looking the other way. Delhi police is controlled by the ministry of Home Affairs. So Delhi Police and Home ministry are directly responsible for this incident. There is no point asking for justice from the authorities because here defenders are the attackers.

Had the BJP believed in democracy and civility such an incident would have never happened. The situation is so grave that mere condemnation of the incident is not enough. To stall it we have to fight it unitedly. That is the call of the hour. If we fail in that it may soon spread to other campuses.”
