The Assam Association Chennai witnessed a momentous event on July 23, 2023, as a new general body was formed to lead the association for the session 2023-25. The election results, declared by the election commission of Assam Association Chennai, brought forth a team of dedicated individuals to spearhead the organization's activities and initiatives.

The elected members who will guide the Assam Association Chennai for the next two years are as follows:

President: Dwip Kinkar Goswami

Vice-president: Deben Daloi

General Secretary: Gautam Deori

Joint Secretary: Bijoy Bordoloi

Cultural Secretary: Jadu Sharma

Organising Secretary: Brindaban Bordoloi

Sports Secretary: Gitashree Saikia

Magazine Secretary: Siddhartha Saikia

Communications and Publicity Secretary: Anshuman Dutta

The newly elected office bearers represent a diverse and talented group of individuals who are committed to promoting Assamese culture and strengthening the bond among the Assamese community residing in Chennai.

To mark the occasion of the successful election, the association has organized a celebratory lunch for all its members. This lunch provides an opportunity for the members to interact with the newly elected representatives and discuss the vision and goals of the association for the upcoming term.

The Assam Association Chennai has always played a crucial role in fostering cultural exchange, social harmony, and community welfare. With the new leadership taking charge, the community looks forward to a period of progress, unity, and increased engagement in various cultural and social activities.

The outgoing members of the general body expressed their gratitude to the members for their support during their tenure and passed on the responsibility to the newly elected team with utmost confidence in their abilities.

The entire community extends its heartfelt congratulations to the new office bearers and wishes them success in their endeavors to further strengthen the spirit of Assam in Chennai.
