Gurgaon : The “Millennium City” that’s the word that has been coined for Gurgaon. The Millennium city with its huge Assamese population formally got its own Assam Association with the completion of the registration formalities on 13th of July 2007. The association has been registered under the Societies Act 1860 of India.

Assam Association of Gurgaon was formed on 11th of Feb 2007 by a group of people from Assam and well-wishers of Assam, currently residing or having his place of business in the Millennium city of Gurgaon. The association is a socio-cultural non-profit society.

The main objectives of the association are to achieve harmony, bonhomie, camaraderie of the members and to provide a platform for social interaction and to promote socio-cultural activities related to Assam.

The Assam Association of Gurgaon had organised the Bohag Bihu in April 2007 which was a grand success.
