After the serial bomb blast at various places of Assam, various organisation has decided to protest against the government's failure. The blast was so devastating that it can be termed as Bloody Thursday, taking away the lives of many innocents. Today, BJP has called for the 12 hrs Assam Bandh in connection with the serial blast which completely rocked the state. In Nagaon, all the shops and business centres including educational institutes remained closed. Though in some areas, shops were open but the Bandh activist closed them. The national highway remain deserted for the Bandh.
