Guwahati: Assam Chief Minister Tarun Gogoi has left for US on a visit to North America during which he will participate in some diaspora meets and hold talks with potential investors. Gogoi will take part in the Assam Convention in Boston on June 30 and July 1 before going for a get-together of the Assamese population diaspora at Maryland near Washington. Popular Bollywood singer Zubeen will perform on two consecutive days at the meet.

On the other hand, another 12 member team of ministers and officials led by Minister for north eastern development Mani Shankar Aiyar and Assam revenue Minister Dr Bhumidhar Barman is visiting Pakistan from June 30 onwards.
