Two Assam cricketers have been selected to the Indian Premier League's Sharukh Khan's Knight Riders in its second season. Both the cricketers will attend the training camp from Tuesday led by former Indian skipper Saurabh Ganguly.

According to information, Dhiraj Goswami and Krishna Das, both from Assam would join the Sharukh Khan's Knight Riders led by former Indian skipper Saurabh Ganguly. They would attend the training camp from Tuesday in Ahmedabad to ensure good performance. The Assam Cricket Association sources have confirmed it and said it's a good news.
