A full grown elephant from Assam died in Bangladesh on Tuesday a couple of days after it reached the neighbouring country by travelling on the river Brahmaputra.

The elephant was learnt to have passed away early in the morning making futile all efforts to save the animal which slipped into the mighty river two months back.

According to the experts, the animal was too weak after it was repeatedly tranquilized and therefore, the treatment did not work.

The incident took place when a team of forest officials was on its way to visit Bangladesh to take the elephant in their possession.
