The Aam Aadmi Party gets its Assam unit with the formation of the first preparatory committee. The party will put thrust on establishing participatory democracy in the northeast.

The Assam committee will put in efforts to constitute committees in all districts of Assam within 20 days. Within 20 days from Thursday, the preparatory committee of AAP in Assam will complete the process of forming district committees.

The 14-member preparatory committee comprises Pranjal Bordoloi and Bhaben Handique as coordinator and joint coordinator respectively.

Significantly, Bhaben Handique was a key member of Krishak Mukti Sangram Samiti before joining AAP. The party will project its candidates for the 2014 general elections in the northeast.
