The Assam Rifles troops averted a major security breach when they recovered and defused a grenade in Haflong town on Friday morning stated AR press release. Troops of Haflong based Assam Rifles unit were on routine area domination patrol when at approx 6 am they found a live hand grenade on the road side near Synod point. The grenade could have caused serious injuries to innocent commuters including women & children including loss of lives. The continued vigilance by the Assam Rifles has saved the people from a potentially dangerous situation which could have used by rival groups to cause further trouble during these tense times.
