Prime Minister Dr Manmohan Singh would step up to nab the killers of Assam journalist

Kamala Saikia, who was murdered by the separatist militants 18 years ago. This was disclosed by Dr Singh as he was listening to the Indian Editors' Guild officials in Delhi on Friday.

Editors Guild of India president Rajdeep Sardesai led the delegation who apprised Dr Singh of the killing of journalists in Assam.

The prime minister promised to take up the case with Assam chief minister Tarun Gogoi once again. The Prime Minister would meet a delegation from Journalist Kamala Saikia Memorial Trust during his next visit to Guwahati.
