GUWAHATI: Good news for traders and tour operators from Assam. Courtesy Kazakhstan. The central Asian country on Wednesday evinced keen interest to receive these people in Almaty to explore the opportunities for bilateral cooperation in the hospitality sector. The open invitation dominated when its ambassador to India Bulat Sarsenbayev is on a five days visit to the premier north east Indian capital city of Guwahati.

Opening an interactive session on cooperation in tourism jointly organised by the Kazakhstan Embassy and the Assam Tourism Development Corporation (ATDC), Sarsenbayev outlined the need to explore huge business potential between the two Asian countries. Earlier, he met Governor Jagdish Mukhi where the duo discussed the issues of possible cooperation.
