Panjim: Jambul Cafe in Panjim resonated with the vibrant melodies of Rongali Bihu as the Assamese community in Goa gathered for a joyous get-together on Sunday, May 12, 2024. The event, organized to celebrate the spirit of Assamese culture and traditions, witnessed enthusiastic participation from young people and families hailing from Assam who have made Goa their home.

A highlight of the event was the presence of several talented Assamese artists based in Goa, who graced the occasion with their performances. Mridusmita Sakia, Kamal Rabha, Roshan, Champak, Mintu captivated the audience with their renditions, infusing the atmosphere with the festive fervor of Rongali Bihu.

The gathering served as a opportunity to come together and reconnect, amidst their busy lives engaged in various professions and businesses across the state. It provided a platform for them to share their experiences, celebrate their cultural heritage, and strengthen bonds of camaraderie.

The Rongali Bihu get-together at Jambul Cafe not only celebrated the rich tapestry of Assamese culture but also laid the foundation for a stronger and more cohesive community in Goa. As the sounds of dhol and tal echoed, the event served as a poignant reminder of the enduring bonds that connect the Assamese diaspora, transcending geographical boundaries and bringing them closer together.
