Delhi police have arrested a youth accusing him along with three of his associates of gang raping a girl from Assam. The 16-year-old girl was allegedly confined at a house in Khyala in west Delhi for seven days where they raped her repeatedly. The rapists released her when the victim's health deteriorated. Later she approached police and filed an FIR. She reached Raghubir Nagar on Imran's direction to spend the night at his friend Nawal Kishore's house. A case of rape was filed with Khyala police station after a medical test of the victim, and Nawal and his wife Shabeena were arrested.
