Axl Hazarika, the Indie rock artist, has become the first Assamese to be officially launched by music website VEVO. A joint venture of Sony Music, Universal Music and EMI VEVO exclusively released the music video of Axl Hazarika's Hindi song 'Hum Badal Gaye' on Thursday.

The title track of an animation film, Hum Badal Gaye's audio version has already gained around half a million views on YouTube and over 2 million plays on SoundCloud.

“It came to me as a big surprise that VEVO decided to launch my song. I can’t be happier. I’m really excited and just hope that people continue to like my music.” , said Axl Hazarika in the release event.

“It sounds great that VEVO will finally feature an Indian Rock artist.”, says John Henry, the producer of the music video from Ireland.
