In the last few years many Assamese students gone out of the state to pursue higher education, few of them were found dead under suspicious circumstances. Recently the death of Ehsan Rizvi (21), son of Abdul Bashir Rob of Golaghat town, in Bangalore is the latest instance to such incidents. He was found dead in his room in Bangalore on 21 August. According to the sources, Ehsan was pursuing his studies in Information Technology in Bangalore since 2005. Few days back he called up his parents in Golaghat saying that he was not feeling well. Immediately his father rushed to Bangalore but Ehsan was already dead. The incident was being investigated by Bangalore police and they have arrested two of Ehsan's classmate for interrogation. Including Ehsan's incident four students of Golaghat studying outside Assam were found dead under suspicious condition.
